EDGAR HILL.

Traffic Manager of the Henderson Route and a Prominent Railroad Man

DROPS DEAD ON THE STREET.

Mr. Edgar Hill, traffic manager of the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railroad, and one of the best known and most popular railroad men in Louisville, dropped dead Saturday afternoon at 2:35 o'clock on Fourth avenue, between Green and Jefferson streets, came without warning. He had just finished a walk with a friend. Heart disease is believed to be the cause.

Mr. Hill was walking on Fourth avenue with Mr. Vernon Wolfe, with whom he had dinner. When a few yards south of Jefferson he suddenly stopped and was found to be dead. Mr. Fred Hamilton, who was passing, caught him in his arms. He came up and grieved for breath. Before he could be carried to a place where he could receive attention he became unconscious. He was laid on the sidewalk. Mr. Blackburn, who was passing, hurried to the man's aid, but by that time life was extinct. Coroner McCulloch was notified.

The news of Mr. Hill's death spread rapidly, and caused a profound shock. It was so sudden that his friends could hardly realize that he was dead. He had been at his desk in his office, in the Columbia building all morning, and that piece apparently in the best of health.

Mr. Hill was about fifty-six years of age. He had been prominently identified with the railroad interests for some years. He was a native of Richmond, Va., and a number of years ago became Traffic Manager of the Big Four, with headquarters in Cleveland. Later he held an important position with the Cordage Company in New York. Five years ago he was appointed Traffic Manager of the Henderson route, and he held this position at the time of his death. He was about 56 years of age.

Mr. Hill leaves a wife and three children, Edgar D. Hill, who is in the employ of the Southern Railway; Miss Marie Hill, who is prominent in society, and Mrs. Daniel. The family residence is at 1700 Fourth avenue. The man's residence is a brick house on 14th street, and he was Assistant General Passenger agent of the L. & N., who married his sister, Mr. Walter Hill, Contracting Agent of the Henderson route, is a brother.

Large Tobacco Dealers.

N. E. and W. E. Triplett, of Bewleyville bought about 40,000 pounds of tobacco at 6 cents round. E. F. Triplett & Co., of Custer bought 30,000 pounds at 6 cents round. Mr. Triplett, who has already been received and the purchase is made entirely of burley. There is no red tobacco raised there. These parties ship to Louisville.

W. T. Skaggs, of Custer, sold them his crop of 400 pounds for 8 cents round. The crop is all burley. He also sold 7 cents round. Alas Skaggs, 1000 pounds; Thomas Chapel, 3700 pounds; Thomas Carman, 3600 pounds; Thomas Marlow sold 1500 pounds at 8 cents and 3 cents; Bud Bennett, 1500 pounds at 6 cents round; Mr. Tucker, 1800 pounds at 5 cents round.

The crop in that section is now about all sold and delivered.

A law of our most faithful temperance workers stands the meeting of the day with the C. U. at 10 A. M. on the 29th. This meeting was a very successful meeting was held. Much interest was manifested in the cause and some of the speakers were so eloquent as said that though he was a constant drinker he was with the temperance movement and was ready for baptism. He wanted "not to be led into temptation."

Twenty more names were added to the membership of the Union and a box of white ribbon was pinned upon each one of them. The names of the officers are as follows:

Miss Viola Chapin, President; Miss Lilly Worthy, Vice-President; Miss Zilla Burdette, Recording Secretary; Miss Alice Chapin, Treasurer.

There is a true safeguard for expectant mothers. It is the use of the safety stages without which as the criminal bent approaches it raises the overstrained muscles. It is a fact very in earnest, and the danger is very real, that a swelled business woman is a very sorry girl.

Thoughts About Thanksgiving.

"Our country, thou art dear,

In love we gather near.

To sound thy praise.

Joyous the song we sing,

Glad tribute now we bring,

And before Heaven's King

Our voices raise.

Our country's flag we love,

That is the blue above.

Floats in the breeze;

Long may that banner be,

Floating in majesty.

On land and sea.

To day with joy we come,

Thankful for bounties home.

Where freedom rules;

Grateful to God we are,

That strength of liberty

And before Heaven's King

In public schools.

This temple now we give

To truth that e'er shall live,

And shall not die;

Long may this structure stand,

Proclaiming in our land

Truths which are over grand,

Truths born on high."

Tomorrow, Nov. 30th, is the day of our National Thanksgiving.

We should first thank him for his loving kindness toward us as individuals in the unspeakable gift of His Son, Jesus Christ, which gift is of more value than all earthly possessions.

"We thank thee Father, for thy love,

For all thy blessings from above;

For health and wealth, for faith and hope

To guide, when we in darkness grope."

We should be devoutly thankful to God for abundant crops and bountiful harvests, and for the degree of prosperity this country now enjoys. The present condition of our country as regards morals and education, demands of us respectful, reverent and earnest thanksgiving. For the public school system and for our numerous colleges and cheap education, we should be devoutly thankful. We have higher education, higher standard of morals and the open Bible for our guide. Bibles are now so cheap that everyone, rich and poor, can own a Bible. In England 200 hundred years ago, bibles sold for $2.00, $3.00 and $4.00 per copy.

"We thank thee, Father, for the grain

Gathered from meadow, field and plain,

The fruits of labor and of toil

Now stored by tillers of the soil."

We should be thankful to the Most High for Christian rulers. Nations are dependent upon God for their existence the same as individuals. "The Most High ruleth in the kingdoms of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will." And our beloved nation which was set apart in the providence of God to be the land of freedom, both religious and politically, must be thankful to God for "all his benefits" if we continue in his favor and receive his blessings. And the people should assemble together in divine worship and have national sermons, national prayers and national songs on the day of our national Thanksgiving.

We thank thee, Father, and we raise

Our hearts and lips in song and praise

And gratitude; and now we plead

That thou will still supply our need!"

LOCAL TALENT OF GREAT VALUE

BRANDENBURG, Ky., Nov. 28.—(Special)

The Farmers' Institute met as advertised this evening at 7:30 p. m. Dr. F. W. Foutz was the principal speaker, as they were to leave for Rome, Ind. that afternoon. They each read interesting instructive papers and made pointed talk. Dr. Foutz's talk was on the importance of the Farmers' Institute to farmers. Dr. Foutz termed his paper a scientific analysis if you choose, if not "Common Sense Gumption." Dr. D. C. Fuey made a short talk on his experience in raising cows, which was very good. Dr. F. W. Foutz's questions were asked and discussed. Miss Luisa and Minnie Bland rendered a beautiful vocal duet. Mrs. McElroy gave a brilliant reading entitled "Kentucky" composed by her husband. She is an elegant lady and enthused over the work of the Institute. Bringing in the singing, Mr. Foutz recited a poem by Dr. L. L. Litchfield and Mrs. F. W. Foutz recited a poem by Dr. L. L. Litchfield.

The meeting adjourned with benediction.

CURRENT TOPICS.

BY MRS. HATTIE GRINNELL.

I was thinking of "human nature" with a pang when Mayday Fune came in with "English Society" sketched by George DeMars. It is a picture that may bring my sorrow into sun. Mayday doesn't like it as much as Gibson's sketch but it is good enough for me and I have read and laughed and laughed and read again. There is humor in the cartoon's art. There are no cruelties which pass for wit, nothing brutal, nothing base in all essentials they are fine. —O—

We see people who have ridden rough aboer the rights of others. We see those who have public principles, but who are not strong enough to see them set their own callous consciences and satanic hearts, "was it worth while after all?" Many things come home to selfish, sordid people as eternal truths in an autumn twilight. Nothing pays us in this short life which burns or hurts a human being. We only injure ourselves and others.

I am glad to read once more the New York Times' "Review of Books and Art." The Times was always a welcome guest, but some time had elapsed since its last visit. It is a charming paper which is read with great interest. "Autumn Song," "Woodbine in October," Mother Nature's poems, are about the sweetest I have seen this fall. They make one think "Is it all a myth that autumn gives?" so cheery and bright is the sentiment. To read of all the late, new books being published when my ap-peal and makes a noise.

I wish I could find language strong enough to say what I think of a prize-fight. But others are not adjectives in the superlative degree nor a sufficient number of expletives to allow me sufficient scope of expression. Let us keep our eyes open and our ears where men and animals meet for combat! Let us forever hold our peace about gladiators and the clancor races of Roman days as long as we of this civilized enlightened century permit such exhibits of animal strength and human brutality!

The news that Bishop Potter is about to start for Hawaii and the Philippines might lead us to think that he had abandoned America as hopeless and that he will set out for more promising fields of labor to seek his fellow creatures. He wrote not long since a fine article on the "Help the Homeless." He has the remarkable power wherein the quantity of money's expenditure to the contrary has been severely strained. Bishop Potter, like all other philanthropists, has had disengaging experiences with fraudulent beggars. He is not in despair, however, because he has discovered the fact that other citizens are more generous and are solicitous only for their own salvation and he thinks that the very poor often have great self-respect and independence and are being assisted to procure honest work. Bishop Potter will be a power in our newly acquired possessions for he knows how to console, encourage, give sympathy, reprobate, and such like gifts to those people need.

—O—

My neighbors, Jeff Dito and Wood Price, are making great efforts to convert me to a "Socialist Democrat." Hence I am in receipt of "Appeal to Reason" and other papers from them.

I am now in the majority of the "American Essays on Socialism." If I get that kind of religion I'll tell you after I digest the strongest of the essays. "The Basis of Socialism" by Sydne Webb discusses the development of the idea in the present century, but he claims it is the basis of all the religions of the world. The remains of the old socialist movement in France. We have in this country looked upon it as we do upon Orthodox, or Communism, but upon studying the matter we find a broad difference. Socialism is a government of a nation by the means of universal cooperation. The theory of universal cooperation will come in with a signal success. I don't believe it could be applied with equal success to the large communities of a nation. Many

President McKinley and his Cabinet trip were commented on with some acerbity by opposition papers. He didn't, however, make any speeches in Ohio but the most picturesque feature of the trip was the meeting of the soldiers and their wives at the untying of the soldier's money-bags. Mr. Bryan sat on the platform while the President spoke, after which the two grasped hands warmly when Mr. Bryan by invitation addressed the same audience. This should serve as a beautiful example to those who are belligerently inclined to show their contempt towards one who sees things differently from themselves. Mr. McKinley and Mr. Bryan are gentlemen and have per-cause they are small and easily overlooked, they naturally turn themselves over to the doctors and are forced to submit to a cruel and dangerous operation—the only treatment being to promptly return, however, and is even more violent and destructive than before. Cancer is a deadly poison that attacks the blood, and an operation, plaster, or other treatment can only remove the tumor from within—the last vestige of poison must be eradicated.

Mr. Wm. Walpole of Wainwright, S. D., says: "A little bluish spot about the size of a pea came under my left eye, gradually growing larger, from which shedding took place. It was in the eye, and I was greatly worried and consulted a good doctor, who pronounced it Cancer, and advised that it be cut out, but that I could not consent to such a procedure. I consulted Dr. C. C. C. S. B. S., and decided to try it. It acted like a charm. The Cancer becoming at first irritated, and then discharging a large amount of pus, which was then easily removed and continued afterwards, leaving a small scar which soon dropped off, and now only a healthy little scar remains where the tumor was. My life is safe and will go on well away."

Positively the only cure for Cancer is Swift's Specific.

The death of Mr. Elgar Hill, traffic manager of the L. & S. L. railroad, removed the management of one of its most important lines. Mr. Hill had been conveniently identified with railroad interests for some years and his ability in that line was exceptional.

The Kentucky Vindicator published at Owensboro by W. M. and C. T. Lusk, has been leased. This paper is to be run on the principle of a newspaper exclusively for the object of promoting the moral welfare of Daviess county. Here's to the health of the Vindicator and "may it live long and prosper."

NEW GOSPEL FOR FARMERS.

The series of "Farmers' Institutes" being held in the several counties by Chairman Dr. P. W. Foote and his corps of assistants have been fairly successful so far. The attendance has not been what it should have been but meetings have been interesting and helpful to the farmers. It is an eight-page paper, read with interest by all. It is well printed and well illustrated. It is a good paper, and we hope it will be a success. We send a copy of the paper to the editor of the "Daily Commonwealth," Louisville, Kentucky.

All we desire in this election is a fair and an honest show of the returns. This should be the desire of every man who loves liberty and law.

Mr. Woodson, of Kentucky, says that if the certificate of election is given to Taylor, Mr. Goode will not make any contest before the Democratic Legislature.

We are glad to see that Hawesville is going to do the right thing by the farmers. It takes a wide awake, swelling place to put up an enthusiasm over Institutes and Conventions, and that is what Hawesville is. We advise citizens of Hawesville to go to the meeting at Hawesville's Friday and Saturday. The town will be yours for the time and you will see a mighty nice time.

It is said of the late Vice-President Hobart, that he was born, and died, a true friend. His good name and sincere interest in his fellowmen was a world of friends and his true worth and remarkable tact kept him from doing any harm. Though his business interests were great and his mind burdened with many details, he always had friends for those who sought him.

Drew is not inimitable but, Drew is still the hero. No mistakes, no errors of judgment, such as was manifested in the much discussed episode of last week, can pale the glory of the wonder of vision, of the man who, in his infinite wisdom and unshakenness, or shall we say, fixities, of some of the American people, as caused a great man to suffer immensely, but the majority of his fellowmen, while deplored one exhibition of bad taste, continue to admire, knowing that he is the hero who sailed the ship to the York harbor to receive the greatest ovation ever accorded a single individual.

THE ABSENT ONE.

The Daughters of the Confederacy held their annual meeting in Richmond, Virginia, on Saturday, Nov. 25, and were unveiled to the memory of General David G. Farragut, all of whom died in the Civil War. Major General W. H. T. Sagan, the only surviving member of the Confederate Cabinet, was present. General Sagan, a son of General Jefferson Davis, the grand-nephew of the dead leader. He is the son of General Davis, but, by an act of Congress, his name was changed to Davis.

Two Handmade Monuments.

Dr. E. Keith and Son have erected a very heavy granite monument at Walnut Grove for Mrs. Samuel J. Parks and Mrs. Eliza Gregory who has contracted with Mr. Keith & Son for the erection of a similar one in the cemetery.

Brother Roberts is conducting an interesting meeting at Caves Spring near Hawesville. We do not know how many converts.

STEPHENSPORT.

We are late perhaps but—Hurrah for Taylor!

Come to the Christmas Toy and Jewelry Store.

To buy! Yes if buying is to be done. But come if it's just for the fun of it. We have been criticised for using the word "fun," we are criticised for many of the pleasant, human, heartfelt, good humored things we do. Never mind; too old to care for such things. We cannot believe it, the heart may shrivel, but not from mere age.

Music from instruments that make very real and good music. TOYS that perform all the human tricks with which they are incarnate. ENGINES that run up hill. TROLLEY CARS that climb inclines, almost no end of pleasing things.

MEN'S AND LADIES JEWELRY.—We have many beautiful and attractive things in Jewelry that men and ladies admire and appreciate. Our entire stock consists of many exclusive designs. You will make no mistake by coming here after your Christmas goods.

T. C. LEWIS, Hardinsburg's Leading Jeweler.

HARDINSBURG

Go to the entertainment to night at the City Hall.

W. B. Rutledge returned to Cloverport last Saturday.

We hope all readers of the News will have turkey for dinner tomorrow.

Frank Wash Braham has been appointed a deputy clerk at Sample.

The King's Daughters will meet with Mr. R. N. Miller next Friday night.

Louise May is expected home from Montrose on Friday this week, to see her father.

The will of Frederick McGamish was admitted to probate in the County Court last Monday.

To L. L. Lewis promises the public a fine display of holiday goods in the way of fine jewelry.

Richard May is still confined to his home and there is little improvement in his condition.

Miss Tilda Mercer, who has been in Louisville for several weeks, returned home last week.

Mrs. James Withers, of Kirk, was in town last Sunday, the guest of Mrs. Thomas Winters.

The Baptist revival closed last Friday night. There were fourteen additions to the church.

Mrs. Annie Wathen, of Irvington, is here this week visiting her sister, Mrs. R. N. Miller.

The first quarterly meeting of the M. E. church will be held here the second Sunday in December.

You want something new and fresh for your table on Thanksgiving, call at the Eclipse Grocery.

Mr. Harrison, of Washington, Ind., will speak before the Institute tomorrow on the subject of good roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Amiel Gels, of Cloverport, will be here next Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Braham.

Mrs. Thomas Winters, seated at a company of ship stingers, will furnish the music for the Farmers' Institute.

T. B. Henderson, of Webster, spent last Saturday and Sunday here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Anna Kincheloe.

Mr. D. S. Parks and wife, of Franklin, were here last Saturday and Sunday, the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Petty.

A article worth $2 given away to every customer at the Eclipse Grocery. Come and see us and we'll tell you how we do it.

The application of J. K. Westerfield and others to establish a road from Harned to Ephesus, was dismissed in the County Court last Monday.

Prof. and Mrs. Wiles were called to Meade county last Monday to see their brother-in-law, Mr. Burch, who was considerably ill.

On Saturday, Oct. 26, Hawsellie last week had a car and shipping to this place. It was necessary, however, many families were entirely out of coal.

Charles Patterson, of Cloverport, was here last week and disposed of a car load of Irish potatoes to our merchants. The potato market is firm with an upward tendency.

George Dryer, of Beaverville, was here last Monday and bought a few acres of land at the commission's office. George will soon turn his whole attention to farming.

This local option resolution from Cloverport appeared in the County Court last Monday, and amended the resolution, changing the taking of the vote from the precincts to the magisterial districts.

Owing to the serious illness of his father, the Rev. D. S. Campbell was not present at the regular meeting set for last Saturday, Oct. 26. Mr. S. F. Petty, however, conducted the affairs very satisfactorily alone.

The public meeting of the W. F. M. S. appointed for Thanksgiving Day, will be postponed on account of the Farmer's Institute, and will be held on our last week. Further notices will be given by all.

Miss Etta Clarkson and Mrs. Bishop are saving new millinery goods and may have a new line of ladies' hats, on which we are making a special price for the Christmas holidays.

Major Arms will bring up the D. C. Creek delegation to the Farmers'

Institute. Micajah is as clever a fellow as lives in the world, and when you go down into his settlement he will treat you like a Lord.

The insurance people are to have a real meeting down at the First Baptist Church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Some Hardinsburg gentlemen, including your humble scribe, have been invited to be present. A large crowd is looked for.

Mr. Dr. Will Gardner, of this city is making arrangements to leave here with his family next Saturday and join his husband at Cobras, Ky., where they are to reside permanently. Our dear wife goes with them.

There has been nothing more said about that reunion at Kirk. We suppose it was only a joke. The people around Kirk are too far advanced in culture and good morals to tolerate a saloon, and the men are too good to be giving dinners in this town tomorrow and as soon as it was known turned and availed twenty-five per cent. The farmers will hit the town at a good time. Come in gentlemen and make yourselves at home.

Postmaster Marcus Kindeloe met with a painful accident one day last week at his home here. While passing through one of the rooms in his house he fell and fractured one of his ribs. The accident confined him at home for several days.

Hardinsburg is a pretty fair old town but the merchants do not reach out for the trade that ought to do. There should be a few drug stores, a light reduction would be made to some special lines, thus attracting the attention of customers.

People do not come to town to court week and lay in six month's supplies as they did years ago. Things have materially changed and they go anywhere and everywhere now to get what they want.

Commissioners have sold 105 acres of land lying near Irvington to Mrs. Leander in the suit of Leander Mador, against Harvey Mador, also 30 acres in same suit to F. Meador for $900, and in the suit of Sarah T. Davis against Mary P. Sanders, 102 acres lying near Kirk for the sum of $430. To be sold to H. M. Wilson at $15, 94 acres to George Birney for $300, and another tract of 30 acres to same party at $150 in the suit of Elie Braham against William Braham.

Bill Henley is riding every day and buying all the tobacco that's marketable. If there is any one thing Bill Henley knows it is tobacco. He is a good fellow, and the way they are showing it here is a sight. The streets are lined with wagons full of tobacco and the wind brings a good price. There is only one thing yet that will make Bill Henley supremely happy and that is to have the road to continue, until he can get a contract with the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

Bill Henley is a good fellow, and the way he is doing it with tobacco from cellar to garret. That will be worth looking at for it is the big-sell thing in all counties around here.
